Doncaster Research School Conference – 10th October 2018

Join your colleagues in attending the first ever Doncaster Research School Conference this Autumn at Doncaster Racecourse.

The conference will bring together academics and practitioners from our international, national and local partnerships, sharing examples of innovative practice, promoting discussion and offering practical ideas.

A range of workshops, relevant to all professionals within education, will explore current themes including: metacognition, early language development, STEM learning PLUS the latest research from across the globe and here in Doncaster.
